Republican County Convention.

The republicans of Dakota county, Nebraska, are hereby called to meet in convention at the court house in Dakota City, on Saturday, July 22, 1916, at 2:30 o'clock, p. m., for the purpose of selecting eight delegates to attend the republican state convention to be held in Lincoln on July 25th, at 11 o'clock, a. m., and for the purpose of transacting such other business as may properly come before the convention. The representation will be based on the vote cast for Hon. R. B. Howell for governor in 1914, allowing one delegate for each ten votes or major fraction thereof, which will entitle the several precincts representation as follows:

Hubbard	5
Emerson	4
Omadi	14
Dakota	13
Covington	15
St. Johns	2
Summit	1
Pigeon Creek	3

It is hereby recommended that the several precincts of the county hold their precinct caucuses for the election of delegates to the county convention and for the nomination of precinct officers on Saturday, July 15, 1916, at 3:30 o'clock, p. m.

J. J. Eimers, Chairman.

Sen. H. P. Shumway, of Wakefield, republican nominee for lieutenant governor, was in Dakota City last Thursday, calling on friends and talking over the political situation. In his travels over the state Mr. Shumway finds the outlook for republican success at the polls this fall very flattering. The sentiment in favor of Chas. E. Hughes, he says, "is something wonderful." Mr. Shumway is campaigning in company with Judge Sutton, candidate for governor, and the two make a strong team in the political arena.

M. E. Church Notes.

The pastor and family leave this week for their vacation. During their absence there will be no preaching service. Sunday school will meet each Sunday as usual. Due announcement of the commencement of the regular service will be made in this paper.

There are still outstanding a few benevolence promise cards. Please bear this matter in mind so that the matter may be well in hand by September 1st.

The official board accepted the financial plan introduced by the special committee. The hearty support of the members of the church is asked. The stewards will lay this matter before each individual during this month. The financial matters of a church should be put upon a perfect business footing. In our new plan a quarterly statement will be made in church, and an annual printed balance sheet will be issued.

F. J. AUCTION, Pastor.

Hurrah! Ringling

Day Almost Here

The big event for which the youngsters and grownups have been impatiently waiting is drawing near, for on Monday, July 17, Ringling Brothers' circus is to exhibit afternoon and night in Sioux City. Expectancy never ran so high before and it is likely that this district will send a large delegation to feed the elephants. Unusual interest centers around the gigantic spectacle, "Cinderella," with which the famous showmen are this season opening their wonderful main tent program. "Cinderella" is probably the best loved of all fairy tales and to see it produced with more than 1000 persons, hundreds of dancing girls and glorious pageants, indeed gives promise of making "childhood's golden dreams come true." In the same great tent, will come the marvelous circus numbers in which 400 men and women performers, scores of trained animals and a galaxy of special features are introduced. The majority of the acts are entirely new to America, the Ringling Bros. having secured the pick of those European performers who have been obliged to seek engagements in this country because of the war. The all-new street parade will take place show day morning.

Lutheran Church Notes

DAKOTA CITY-SALEM

A joint council meeting of Salem and Immanuel churches met at the parsonage last Monday night for the purpose of electing a delegate to Synod at Omaha, October 18-22. Mell A. Schmied was elected principal and Geo. W. Bates is alternate.

While the Salem men were together they did some planning for the next year's work. These will be made known when they are completed. From Immanuel congregation there was present A. T. Haase. From Salem Messrs. Gribble, Lake, McGlashan, Culbertson, Boals and Ebel. Aside from the work a little time was spent in visiting. This all is a pleasure.

It is possible now for the pastor to take up the work of the young men's catechism class. This will be put under way next Sunday morning. It will be our intention to finish this work before school starts in the fall, for some of the young men are going away for winter work.

Our boys and girls are taking a new method of entertainment at our Friday night practice. For awhile it was impromptu and jokes and "funny" stuff, now it is a "prepared" affair. When we work hard, we need a Midland yell, or a story or something to ease up on; we enjoy these little recesses and look forward to them. The storyteller comes out in front of the crowd and speaks. Aside from the entertainment it is helpful to the speaker in affording him an opportunity to appear before his fellows and to command himself and think upon his feet. I know a school that used to have an excellent reputation for thoroughness of work at one of the state institutions, so that when it was known that a student came from that high school no question was made as to his fitness for the work in the institution. And as our youth grow up and get away to school we want to have them marked as coming from a thorough, wide-awake Sunday school, they having enthusiasm and ability. Why not; we not only can do this but are doing it.

We are making fine progress in our music. Probably not noticeable so much from week to week, but from quarter to quarter you can. No doubt you all noticed last Sunday the excellent accent and rhythm of the chorus anthem. This work is like soldiering. Anyone can "shoulder hums" and "present hums" but it takes drill to work together and do it nicely and easily. So by practicing together we get to work together exactly and easily. That is what makes the niceties of music. Team work in the chorus as well as the base ball diamond. And the church that has team work rather than all star players is the one that wins, always.

The matter of a Christmas cantata was brought up last Friday night. The pastor did not know whether the chorus would be ready to answer or not, but there was a unanimous assent by all who were there to have a special service at Christmas-time. It is a fine thing to be able to make a decision so quickly and then carry it thru. That is why our business men prosper more than another. Many have an idea
